The good news story that we hear at Easter is more than just a story. It isn't a myth handed down from generation to generation to preserve the identity of a people, culture or language. This story is good news for all people of all languages and all cultures. It is good men have given their lives to sharing this news ever since Jesus' died on a cross around 2000 years ago. This news is just as good today as it was back then. Have you heard it? Have you understood it? It transforms lives! It is true. This story is littered with his-

This story is grounded in the truth about Jesus. But didn't Jesus die? How can this be good news?

We are confident that his death is good news for us! We are confident that the Jesus who died on the cross was raised from the dead. Resurrected!

nesses to confirm this as true.

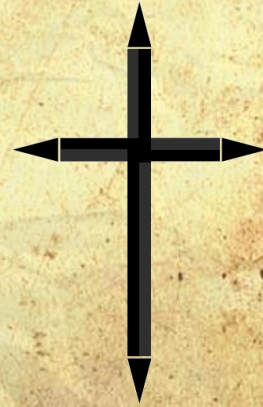

But the truth of this is best seen in Jesus' gathered people all around the world. Jesus is alive and active in the world that we live in. Jesus is alive and active in our church today. Why not come and find out? We believe the good news we

PRAYER

Jesus, in love you brought down the dividing walls of hostility on the cross. Please forgive me for my ..... [list what you're leaving] ....

I leave my ..... with you [place cloth]
Please reconnect me to your love.
Please wash me of my sin and shame.
Please fill me with your love.
Please reconcile me to others in love.
Please make me new in Jesus' Name.
